

DBU Books Available in March 2012 (10 total)

Fiction

Alma the Younger by H. B. Moore. DBU01180 (10 hrs)

Based on the Book of Mormon account, this novel portrays the son of the aging high priest. It is a story of redemption, and shows how the vilest of sinners can be transformed by the Savior's amazing grace. Narrated by Gary Armstrong.

Black Stars over Mexico by Susan Evans McCloud. DBU01260 (4 hrs)

This novella of adventure, set in the Mormon colonies in Mexico, centers on a boy who acts as mediator between the colony and the Villistas. Narrated by Thomas Black. (Replaces RCU06576)

Cankered Roots, 1. Alexandra Campbell by G.G. Vandagriff. DBU01261 (8 hrs)

In volume 1 of a series of mysteries featuring professional genealogist, Alexandra Campbell, her research uncovers a family secret about her grandfather and leads to the murder of her father. She uncovers a seventy-year-old tale of deception, impersonation, and blackmail. Narrated by Alan Willey. (Replaces RCU06576)

The Heart and the Will, 2. Heart by Susan Evans McCloud. DBU01262 (8 hrs, 30 mins)

This novel of mystery and romance is an action-packed sequel to Where the Heart Leads. Nan's fairy-tale wedding is rudely interrupted by Edwin, who will stop at nothing to get his share of the family fortune. This family conflict is set against the bonnie banks of Loch Lomond and the sultry shores of Nauvoo. Narrated by Alan Willey. (Replaces RCU06242)

Last Suspect, 3. Callum MacGregor by Susan Evans McCloud. DBU01264 (8 hrs)

In this mystery Inspector Callum MacGregor must act quickly to save the life of the daughter of a murdered man. While facing a number of suspects and an uncooperative police department, he also finds true love from an unexpected source. Narrated by Thomas Black. (Replaces RCU06683)

When Forever Comes by Anita Stansfield. DBU01250 (12 hrs)

This romance novel is the story of Jack and Hilary Smith. Their path to romance is strewn with obstacles. Just when it blossoms and begins to grow, life-changing tragedy strikes. Narrated by Fred Luttmr. (Replaces RCU06714)

Nonfiction

Knowing Christ by George W. Pace. DBU01287 (8 hrs)

This inspirational book discusses what "come unto Christ," can mean in our everyday lives. Narrated by Thomas Black. (Replaces CBU07376)

Living with Enthusiasm by L. Tom Perry. DBU01288 (4 hrs)

A member of the Quorum of the Twelve provides a personal account that both teaches and entertains. In story-filled chapters he shows how to live the gospel with enthusiasm. Narrated by Thomas Black. (Replaces CBU06174)

Some Dreams Die by George A. Thompson. DBU01169 (18 hrs)

The author visited over four hundred deserted communities during his compilation of this comprehensive guide to the history of ghost towns in Utah. Discussion of the sites is arranged geographically. The book also includes information on lost mines and treasures. Narrated by Ray Spencer.

Weakness is Not Sin by Wendy Ulrich. DBU01249 (5 hrs)

An LDS psychologist distinguishes between weakness and sin. She guides us through practical suggestions for avoiding self-deception, strengthening our humility, and magnifying our strengths. Narrated by Nathaniel Kemp.